Acknowledgement: By initialing and signing below, I agree to the terms and conditions of this new business utility incentive program offered by the City of Washington, Georgia.

_____ The New Local Business Entity utility account must be paid via automatic bank draft. If the account becomes delinquent (e.g. nonsufficient funds, nonpayment, etc.), then the incentive discount shall be terminated, and the account shall revert to standard utility rates for all applicable services.

_____ If the New Local Business Entity fails to report the retention or addition of new jobs or fails to show the requisite job creation, the special incentive discount shall become null and void from the date such report was due, and the utility rates shall revert to standard utility rates for all applicable

_____ In the event the New Local Business Entity never meets the requisite job creation, it shall be liable to the City of Washington for any incentive received under this program.

The customer acknowledges all the above program requirements and understands that incentivized rate will be null and void if any requirements are not met.
